Moral Maxims by Ralph & James Clews (a border series)	Spring 2002
1) Industry the key, Integrity the lock, wealth & fame the treasure.		2
2) Knowledge is not acquired but by attention and application.		2
3) Learn prudence, one vice is more expensive than many virtues.		2
1) It is less painful to learn in youth than to be ignorant in age.		2
2) Youth be temperate, in manhood just, in old age prudent.		2
3) A young man idle, an old man needy, stoke like rust corrupts.		2
1) No evil action can be well done, guard well thy thoughts.		B
2) Let prudence on thy pleasures wait, flee the vicious.		B
3) Industry gives comfort, idleness & profusion leads to peraxry.		B
